

Jobs Victoria fund wage subsidy scheme

By Fordham

3 March 2022

The Jobs Victoria Fund is providing $250 million in wage subsidies to help Victorian businesses to grow and to create 10,000 secure jobs.

If you are a Victorian employer, the Jobs Victoria Fund can financially support you to employ people who have been most affected by the economic impacts of the pandemic – by hiring new staff or increasing hours for existing employees.

What is it?

A wage subsidy of up to $20,000 per employee for employing someone from a deemed group, who is currently unemployed or underemployed, for 12 months.

Employment conditions

- At the time of application, the employee must have been in their new role for less than 16 weeks.
- The role must be at least 12 months in duration.
- The role must be permanent or fixed term for these 12 months.
- Minimum of 19 work hours per week.
- Minimum 8 hours per week where the employee has a disability or provides constant care.
- The employee must have been unemployed, or underemployed, prior to taking on the role.
- The employee must be part of at least one priority group (see Priority groups and subsidy available table).
- Salary must be under $120,000 per annum, pro rata for part-time.
- Excluding superannuation.
- The employee must be employed directly through the business.

Number of subsidies available

Number of employees	Limit on number of subsidies available
1	1
2-10	50% of the number of employees (for example, 3 subsidies with a workforce of 7 employees).
11-23	5
24+	25% of the number of employees, capped at 30 subsidies (for example, 9 subsidies for 37 employees).

Note: Employers seeking a wage subsidy for more than three employees must provide at least 60 per cent of the roles to women.

Other requirements

- The business must have had a payroll of less than $40 million in the prior financial year.
- The business must be operating in Victoria.
- Employees must be a resident of Victoria.
- Any new subsidised roles must not displace existing employees, or their work hours.

Application process

1. The employee must be employed in their new role prior to making the application.
  - The employee must have been in their new role for less than 16 weeks, at the time of application.
2. An online application is submitted through the Jobs Victoria website
3. Jobs Victoria will provide the outcome of the application, including the amount of funding to be offered, and any conditions attached to the funding offer.
4. There is currently no closing date for applications. Receipt of funding will be subject to the availability of funds in the Jobs Victoria Fund.

Payment timeframe

Timing	Amount	Requirements
Execution of the grant agreement	30% of the total subsidy	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Execution of the grant requirement</li><li>• Payslip for eligible employees (provided at time of application)</li></ul>
After 26 weeks of continuous employment of each employee*	30% of the total subsidy	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Payslips for eligible employees demonstrating 26 weeks of continuous employment</li><li>• Statutory declaration</li></ul>

*Grant recipients who employ more than one eligible employee must provide milestone requirements for all employees at the same time. Recipients must submit these requirements once the employee who started last has completed their period of continuous employment for the relevant milestone.

**Actual payments will be calculated according to payslip evidence provided at the time of each milestone.

Relevant information

- Applicants in receipt of or applying for subsidies through other government agencies are advised to check whether the relevant scheme excludes them from receiving a subsidy from another source.
- A third party (for example Fordham) can submit an application on behalf of the business, if an authorising letter is provided by the business.
- Jobs Victoria has provided a detailed eligibility checklist including evidence requirements.
